

UNTITLED

If I had a Husband
That acted like my Daddy
I'd kill him fucking dead,
And they'd never find the body

Mama's old best friend
Killed her man with boiling oil
I did not know my Mama
But she knew the fucking score

Her Daughter, my Granny
Died before her time
Unfair Grand-dad could live so long
To hurt so many Wives

I am my Mother's child
I know why I bite

You are no loving Father
And I ain't your fucking Wife
I have tried to help my Mother
I have tried to save my life

My Mother's Mother's Mother
Is why I am around
I hope your Mother's Mother's Mother
Kicks your ass on your way down

I can't save that old kid
But I protect this Bitch
You'll be nothing
A lump in a ditch

There'll be no spine to find
With the bones scattered round
I'll have my peace of mind
Me in prison, you in the ground
